

SPECIAL SALE

This Week of 150 fine Melton and all-wool Cheviot

SILK AND SATIN-LINED FALL OVERCOATS

At the Nominal Price of $13.50

We expect our October sales to go far ahead of those of last year. In order to start this month with a boom, we will, for this week only, sell these fine garments at this very low price. Any gentleman desiring a first-class, dressy, fall overcoat, elegantly made and trimmed, should be sure to get one of these great bargains.

The demand for our tailor-made suits at $18 to $40 has been very gratifying thus far this season. For quality, fit, cut and make, they cannot be surpassed. In price they are but little more than half of what the same qualities would cost made to order.

THIS WEEK

A great drive in imported merino half hose at 25c!

It cannot be matched anywhere under 35c.

THIS WEEK

We offer 50 dozen boys' cloth hats, worth 50c, for 25c!

Every lady should examine our great line of children's fancy caps.

MODEL CLOTHING COMPANY

EIGHT (8) STORES IN ONE.

W. T. WILEY &amp; CO BIG TAILORING

48 and 50 North Illinois Street.

SPECIAL OFFERING
—OF—
WINTER GOODS
THIS WEEK.

50 pcs. all-wool Tricot Cloth, 38 inches wide, only 31c a yard; worth 50c.
20 pcs. all-wool Tricot Cloth, 54 inches wide, only 48c a yard; worth 75c.
10 pcs. all-wool Camel's Hair Suiting, 54 in. wide, only 35c yd.; worth 75c.
10 pcs. all-wool Black Henrietta Cloth, 40 in. wide, only 48c yd.; worth 60c.
See our French Flannels for tea gowns, just opened.
Silk Plushes from 38c up. See them.
See our special prices on Underwear.

Ladies' all-wool scarlet Vests, fair quality, only 98c; worth $1.25.
Ladies' merino Vests at 43c; worth 60c.
Children's Jersey ribbed Vests at 45c; worth 65c.
Children's Vests and Pants from 10c up. See them.
Gents' all-wool Underwear at 45c; worth 75c.
Gents' camel's hair Underwear at 50c; worth 65c.
Gents' woolen Socks at low prices.
50 pieces heavy Cotton Flannel only 10c per yd, worth 15c. This is a great bargain.

See our low prices on Skirting Flannels.
Good Blankets 98c per pair. Good Bed-Comforts only 75c.
50 dozen Ladies All-wool Cashmere Hose only 25c, worth 35c.
Ladies' Kid Gloves, embroidered backs, only 48c. See them.
Complete line of Dress Trimmings at low prices.
See our low prices on Corsets this week.

Great Cloak Sale!

We will offer the greatest bargains of the season in Cloaks this week.
Ladies' Newmarkets, good quality, only $2.45, worth $4.00.
Ladies' Jackets, good quality, only $1.25; worth $2.00.
Special prices on Plush Sacques this week.
You will find you can save money by trading with

W. T. WILEY &amp; CO

48 and 50 North Illinois Street.

CHICAGO ART GLASS CO.

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN STAINED, ORNAMENTAL AND BEVELED GLASS.
EDWARD SCHURMAN, No. 2 Odd-Fellows' Hall,
Designs and Estimates Furnished Free on Application. State Agent, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

C. E. KREGLO

125 North Delaware St.

NO CHARGE for CHAPEL for services.

Only Free Ambulance. Telephone 564.

HENRY COBURN

Oldest and Largest Lumber Yard and Planing Mill in the City

WHEN INDICATIONS:
SUNDAY—Fair weather; warmer; variable winds.

WE MAKE OUR BOW

All of us do on occasion; but the man or boy doesn't look well doing it unless he has a

NEW FALL HAT

He Have More than We Need.

We sell to the millions—that is everybody—cheaper than anybody.

There is no end to the prevailing colors in Derby Hats. Tan, Cinnamon, Hazel, Pine-Burr, Peanut-Shell, Snuff, Walnut, Maple, Fawn, Terra Cotta, Tobacco, Coffee, Gingerbread, Jersey Mud, Potato-Peel and Olive are some of the more popular shades.

We Have More than We Need.

The $3 Silk Hat.

The "Nascimento" Specialties.

Imported French Hats.

Novelties in Boys' and Children's

Hats.

The When

P. S.—We also have some Clothes for sale.

BENETS PARTISAN ORDER

Its Discovery and Publication Causes a Sensation Among the Politicians.

The Tariff Agitation Acts as a Damper on Enterprises in the Manufacturing Towns of the Gas Belt—Other Washington News.

THE BENET CIRCULAR

It Causes a Sensation Among Prominent Politicians of Both Great Parties.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—No greater bombshell has been exploded in the Democratic camp during the present campaign than that which was fired this morning when the newspapers containing the Benet circular made their appearance. On every side the action of the chief of the bureau of ordnance was condemned. Republicans looked upon it as an open violation of the first principles of civil-service reform, and are outspoken in their condemnation of the policy prevailing in the War Department, which makes it possible to visit political wrath upon innocent women and children. It is believed among them that the publication of the circular will have the effect of opening the eyes of thousands of conservative voters to the picaresque smallness to which the Democratic party is ready to descend, and besides this, it is thought that it will certainly disgust men who love fair play and hate hypocrisy, for if there ever was a hypocritical administration in this country it is this one, which issues open circulars to federal employees commanding absolute non-interference in political work, and at the same time sends out "confidential" circulars to the same officials commanding them to turn out women and children for political ends. Democrats who commented upon the circular at all to-day said that it was the height of absurd politics, and that it could not be otherwise than damaging to a degree to the Democratic cause.

EFFECT OF THE MILLS BILL

The Tariff Agitation Causes Depression in the Natural-Gas Towns.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—There ought to be enough votes to go from the Democratic to the Republican ranks in the natural-gas belt in Indiana alone to give Harrison and Morton a very large majority, said a real estate dealer in one of the most enterprising natural-gas cities in the Hoosier State, this morning. "We have experienced a decided set-back in our natural-gas boom," continued the gentleman, "and it can be attributed solely to the agitation of the tariff. Beginning with Toledo, O., and running to the central part of Indiana—it extends almost entirely across northern Ohio—a belt of country probably fifty miles wide, has been developed beyond all competition during the last eighteen or twenty months, and the discovery of natural gas has done it. The element that develops a natural-gas country is manufacturing. Towns build up only through the establishment of factories. These are glass, paper, wood-working and textile. The Mills bill proposes to strike a severe blow at all these industries. Last summer and fall there were ten times as many manufactures established in the natural-gas belt through Ohio and Indiana as there have been this year. Last year there was no thought of such a thing as the Mills tariff bill, and men did not hesitate to put their means into factories. Now they do hesitate because they regard the election of Cleveland and Thurman as almost sure to give success to the Mills tariff bill. With the Senate very nearly a tie and the House of Representatives and the White House in the possession of the Democracy, it will be easy to force the adoption of the Mills bill."

"Then you would infer there is something in this campaign to enlist the opposition of the

BENETS PARTISAN ORDER

Its Discovery and Publication Causes a Sensation Among the Politicians.

The Tariff Agitation Acts as a Damper on Enterprises in the Manufacturing Towns of the Gas Belt—Other Washington News.

THE BENET CIRCULAR

It Causes a Sensation Among Prominent Politicians of Both Great Parties.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—No greater bombshell has been exploded in the Democratic camp during the present campaign than that which was fired this morning when the newspapers containing the Benet circular made their appearance. On every side the action of the chief of the bureau of ordnance was condemned. Republicans looked upon it as an open violation of the first principles of civil-service reform, and are outspoken in their condemnation of the policy prevailing in the War Department, which makes it possible to visit political wrath upon innocent women and children. It is believed among them that the publication of the circular will have the effect of opening the eyes of thousands of conservative voters to the picaresque smallness to which the Democratic party is ready to descend, and besides this, it is thought that it will certainly disgust men who love fair play and hate hypocrisy, for if there ever was a hypocritical administration in this country it is this one, which issues open circulars to federal employees commanding absolute non-interference in political work, and at the same time sends out "confidential" circulars to the same officials commanding them to turn out women and children for political ends. Democrats who commented upon the circular at all to-day said that it was the height of absurd politics, and that it could not be otherwise than damaging to a degree to the Democratic cause.

EFFECT OF THE MILLS BILL

The Tariff Agitation Causes Depression in the Natural-Gas Towns.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—There ought to be enough votes to go from the Democratic to the Republican ranks in the natural-gas belt in Indiana alone to give Harrison and Morton a very large majority, said a real estate dealer in one of the most enterprising natural-gas cities in the Hoosier State, this morning. "We have experienced a decided set-back in our natural-gas boom," continued the gentleman, "and it can be attributed solely to the agitation of the tariff. Beginning with Toledo, O., and running to the central part of Indiana—it extends almost entirely across northern Ohio—a belt of country probably fifty miles wide, has been developed beyond all competition during the last eighteen or twenty months, and the discovery of natural gas has done it. The element that develops a natural-gas country is manufacturing. Towns build up only through the establishment of factories. These are glass, paper, wood-working and textile. The Mills bill proposes to strike a severe blow at all these industries. Last summer and fall there were ten times as many manufactures established in the natural-gas belt through Ohio and Indiana as there have been this year. Last year there was no thought of such a thing as the Mills tariff bill, and men did not hesitate to put their means into factories. Now they do hesitate because they regard the election of Cleveland and Thurman as almost sure to give success to the Mills tariff bill. With the Senate very nearly a tie and the House of Representatives and the White House in the possession of the Democracy, it will be easy to force the adoption of the Mills bill."

"Then you would infer there is something in this campaign to enlist the opposition of the

THE DEAD EMPEROR'S DIARY

Bismarck Confronted with a Grave Difficulty in His Proposed Prosecution.

The Suit Might Lead to Discoveries That Would Be Very Embarrassing—The Topic Universally Discussed in Germany.

Denial of the Rumored Quarrel Between Emperor William and His Mother.

The German Ruler's Coming Visit to Italy—Series Results Likely to Follow the Crop Failure in Germany—Notes by Cable.

FREDERICK'S DIARY.

It is the Absorbing Topic in Germany, and Curious Revelations Are Possible.

[Copyright, 1888, by the New York Associated Press.]

BERLIN, Sept. 29.—Although notice of action has been entered to the Berlin Landgericht, the court of first instance, against the editor of the Deutsche Rundschau, the judicial authorities have not yet decided upon the exact course of the prosecution. The public prosecutor has not settled upon what clause in the penal code to proceed, and the Minister of Justice is in a quandary as to whom to prosecute. The manager of the Deutsche Rundschau has surrendered the name of Herr Gefekin, of Hamburg, as that of the person through whom he obtained the diary of Emperor Frederick. Herr Gefekin has been a professor at Strassburg and represented the Hanse Towns for several years in Berlin, where he became known to Frederick. Afterward he was the Hanseatic resident in London, and became a frequent contributor to English papers and magazines. In recent years he has lived privately in Hamburg. He is a conservative with liberal leanings. He is no enemy of Bismarck, nor is he known to have ever possessed the special confidence of Frederick. The government suspects a high personage of using Gefekin as an instrument. The trial threatens to reveal the original source, and Prince Bismarck may hesitate about proceeding. Neither Herr Rodenberg, of the Deutsche Rundschau, nor Herr Gefekin, is likely to submit to two years' penal servitude for the betrayal of state secrets without protesting against being punished for the mere exercise of their functions as journalists, acting without bias against the state or government. Prince Bismarck is known to suspect the English court as the source of the publication, hence the language of his statement is directed against that court. The Chancellor's outspoken declarations have not tended toward allaying party strife over the diary. They have rather excited public opinion to fever heat. Nothing else is talked about in places of resort, and furious quarrels are a frequent result. The Press, in its discussion of the affair, reflects vigorously the party strife. The semi-official papers do not hesitate to assail the memory of Frederick, vilifying both his character and intellect. The Kolnische Zeitung says the diary shows himself a complacent idealist, rich in beautiful phrased generalities and crude in plans for improving the world, but poor in practical, statesmanlike qualities. The Berlin Post says: "Even at the risk of damaging the memory of Frederick by laying bare his lamentable weakness, the interests of the empire require the disclosure that the Crown Prince, far from being the active promoter of German unity, formed the most serious obstacle to it."

It is difficult to believe that public sentiment concurs in the semi-official attempt to denigrate the Emperor Frederick. Especially contemptible are the comments which attempt, in terms of indignation, to denigrate the Emperor's powers and to disparage his aims. The Boreen Courier, an organ of the Liberals, better represents the genuine public feeling here in saying: "It excites a lively indignation to see the press assail the Emperor Frederick with such wanton result. The Emperor must be defended at the cost of the reputation of the press."

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

The Progress press challenges the accuracy of Bismarck's statements in the diary. The Freinige Zeitung points out that the Chancellor does not give documentary proof of the correctness of his assertions. It says that the memory of a man who is seventy-four years old may be at fault in regard to occurrences of seventeen years ago, and that the diary, written under a fresh impression of events is less likely to be wrong.

It is a significant fact that the comments of the press concerning the diary, do not question the authenticity of the diary. The reasons that Prince Bismarck advances against his assertions are, first, that he is an old man, and secondly, that he is a German, and are completely ignored outside of the official world. There is not a man in a thousand who refuses to accept the diary as a faithful record written by Emperor Frederick's own hand. The court circles exonerate Emperor Frederick from any knowledge of the publications.

the refusal of the Prince of Wales to be present at the Emperor's reception in Vienna, but the Emperor is making, as far as possible, a neutral position in the family strife.

Empress Augusta celebrates to-morrow her seventy-seventh birthday.

The Emperor is going to Munich on Tuesday, where he will be received at the station by the Regent, members of the royal family, ministers and generals. His visit to Vienna does not excite anything like the interest that is taken in his reception at Rome.

The Diet of Lower Austria to-day rejected the motion of Count von Sotomayor, Vienna, that the Diet, in its corporate capacity, give prominence to the reception of Emperor William. Only the anti-Semitic members supported the motion.

The programme for the Emperor's visit to Rome is unaltered. Count von Sotomayor, however, the German ambassador in the city, was summoned to a conference at Friedrichsruh just at the moment of starting to resume his post at Rome. The Emperor is dissatisfied with the neutral result of Prince Bismarck's negotiations with Signor Crispi and Count Kalnoky, and demands a formal assurance that the Emperor's visit will be warmly received by the Italian government that Rome is the capital of the Italian kingdom. The Cologne Gazette, noting the reports appearing in the Berlin papers that the journey of Emperor William has been postponed owing to the Vatican difficulty, states that the Emperor's visit to Rome